

1885-045 Chancery Causes: Gilbert Young vs. Emily Young Lee Co

CA-Divorce

T-Vices

Virginia Le Circuit Court to wit.

To the Hon^{ble} M^r: A. Kelly Judge of said Court Sitting in Chancery.

Your Orator Gilbert Young humbly Complaining respectfully sheweth unto your Honor. that on the day of 18 he was duly married to his present wife Emily Young by name, that Your Orator lived with her for a considerable length of time enjoying married life usually well. Your Orator though poor was endeavoring by dint of energy & labor, to acquire a home and sustenance for himself & wife, and was advancing in his designs quite well, when to your Orator utter astonishment his ~~last~~ happy station in life was invaded and overturned by a deep mortification caused alone by Your Orator's his said wife unfaithful and profligate, Conduct.
His said wife had committed adultery.
Now your Orator here Charges that his said wife has committed adultery within the last five years, and your Orator has not cohabited with his said wife since the knowledge of her adulterous Conduct was communicated to him. Neither did he in any way connive at her said act. His said wife the said Emily now resides in Lee County Va. The object of this bill is to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between Your Orator and his said wife - And being without remedy at the common law he prays your Honor to take Cognizance of his case. And grant him relief. To that end your Orator makes the said Comity Young a party defendant to this bill and prays that she answer the same or that proper process issue requiring her to appear and answer, and that once having a decree be rendered dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between Your Orator and his said wife. And that all such other further and general relief ^{be granted} as to Equity belongs to give or is suited to the peculiar Circumstances of his case. And as in duty bound your Orator will ever subscribe -
